CITY NEWS.

-License to marry was issued yes-terday to R. H. Jones and Miss A. B. -Midsummer issue of the London

Graphic and Illustrated News can be had at Mansford's. The entertainment to be given by the Keene Dramat'c Club Friday night at Estival Park promises to be well at-

-The toboggan did not run last evening, owing to threatening weather, but will be going this evening at 5 o'clock. -The obstructions put in the way of the passage of the bridge bl'l are a subject of a great deal of censure on 'Change.

—A New Orleans paper says that Capt. Scurry, of the Houston Light Guards, we'll known here, has removed to Dallas, Tex. -The man, name unknown, who was stabbed by James Magregor Sun-day night in Fort Pickering, is about to die. The stabber is in jail. -After tomorrow the accommodation train on the Mississippi and Ten-nessee Railroad will be discontinued. The regular mails will leave as usual,

-The Courthouse Baseball Club will play the Collierville nine at Colliervil e next Thursday. A good big delegation of candidates will go out to see the game. -Squire Sumner, a hackman, was arrested last night for assault and battery. He had a row with another darky named Lewis, on Gayoso street near Beale, and knocked his eye out. -Archie Miller was sentenced in the Criminal Court yesterday to pay $10 fine and serve thirty days for stealing a plow. For stealing a ring, James Gadsden was sentenced to thirty days and fined $10. -Mollie Moore went to Perry Nagle's house on Causey and South streets last night, and called Perry bad names. He hit her on the head with a club and was arrested. Dr. Graves sewed the woman's head up.

-The dwelling, No. 455 Pontotoc street, that was destroyed by fire Saturday night at 10:10 o'clock, was owned by Mrs. E. C. LeHache, and was not occupied by her, as erroneously stated by some of our contempora-ries, but was occupied by Allen Asher and was fully covered by insurance.

-General Tracy reports a singular circumstance in connection with the balloon business. Last year nearly every one he sent up was wafted northeast, and this year they take an opposite direction. He has succeeded in sending but one over the city since the toboggan began running.

—Norah Bell, a negro man, was killed while attempting to jump from a train at Love's station on the Mississippi and Tennessee road, Sunday afternoon. Bell was a section hand on the road and was riding on a pass with four others, and had been put off the train by the conductor. He was drinking at the time.

-Justice Holeman, who lives south of the city, was in good spirits over the rain yesterday. He said it would do growing corn, which would have suffered severely in a few days, a great deal of good, and while it migut make it more difficult to kill the grass in contous, it would not do a great deal of -The switchback did not switch either way last night on account of the rain, but on the night previous the crowd was immense. Hundreds went out who were unable to get a seat on any of the cars, though they were sent dashing out at the rate of three every two minutes. The spectacle was an amusing one.

-The musical fizz of the so la fount which was put up a short time ago at the Courthouse no longer wakes the echoes in the rotunds. The proprietor counted upon the campaign for a rich harvest, but he counted in vain. The average solid voter wants something more invigorating about this time of the year.

-The home rule picuic will be one of the most elegant affairs ever given in this city. The committees having the arrangements in charge are doing their best to that end, determined that there shall be no cause for complaint. It is expected that the attendance will be very large, that everybody will be present who can, but the provisions will be ample for -The jury in the case of Herhert Mendel, charged with assault to rape Mrs. Oliver Racine, returned a verdict of assault and battery in the Criminal Court ye to day. The testimony of Recine's negro servant was that Men-del was seen by her in Mrs. Racine's room siting in a chair while she was in bed, her hugband being absent in Little Rock. When she walked in Mrs. Racine asked her to put Mendel out, and she answered that she had net invited him in and would not put him out. Mrs. Racine tes ified that Mendel entered her room, seized her in his arms and drew her down upon his knees. She said nothing to her hurband until he had already been informed by the negro woman

PERSONAL.

Miss E. T. Barron has returned to the city.

Mrs. Appril will be absent from the city for several weeks. MIRS FLORENCE DERYPUS left Monday evening for Birmingham, Ala., to spend the summer.

MRS W. S. ABRENETHY, of No. 47 Vance street, s making a tour among the watering places of Arkan as. MR. L. UIS ERB, was on Monday night, tendered a forewell serenade by members of the Calin, in anticipation of his early departure for Europe. RABBI SAMPIELD, editor of the Jewish dator, lal for Cleveland, Onio, yesterday morning, to attend a mee ing of the Jewish Orphan Asy um of that place. Tau Rev. H. A. Jones, pestor of the Cumberland Presbyter an Church, who has been indisposed for some time, has been granted leave of absence for several weeks. He leaves today for a brief visit to his home in England. Yesterday qui e a plea ant surpri e was toudered him by a visit from a member of his congregation, who handed him an envelope containing several hundred deliars and a let-ter expressing the kindly appreciation There is no minister in Memphis that is more beloved by Jones, and this affection is worthily be towed.

Neely of this city, were laid to rest in the cemetery of Mount Moriah Church, near Collierville, yesterday Mrs. Neely had reached her eighty-first year, and had lived to see her first year, and had lived to see her sons henored as among the most dis-tinguished merchants and citizens of he State, which she and her surviv-ing husband helped to build to its present proportions. She was indeed a mother to Israel, whose works do ollow her. Her children tell what she was, for are they not as the work of her hands. They steak her praises in every good act of their lives.

His Home Run Hit Captured

the Heart of an Heiress.

It was a close and exciting game. Eight innings had been playe I, and the score stood a tie. Memphis had retired its opponent in the ninth inning without scoring. Memphis was at the bat. Two men were out. Two strikes had been called upon the man at the bat. The next ball pitched came straight toward him. Then it took a sudden curve.

He swung his bat. Would be miss it? The excitement was painful. There was a quick, short stroke. Ah! he has hit the ball. Away high in the air it sails. See, the center fielder is chasing it. The spectators hold their breath. Suddenly there is one tumul-tuous shout. The ball has gone far over the head of the fielder, who is chasing it.

Around the bases speeds the batter. He touches the home plate and the victory is won. Bouquets are showered upon him.

He looks up just in time to see a lovely girl take a bunch of roses and throw them at his feet. As he gracefully picks them up their eyes meet. A humble base ball player has
